

We're gearing up to celebrate our past as we prepare for the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Join us in MN from April 5th ~ 8th.

The ACL and Luther Academy are hosting their annual Free Conference April 6-8th. Prior to this conference the CLCC will be bringing you: Pr. Rob Jarvis as he talks about the struggles of the Reformation after the presentation of the Augsburg Confession; and Pr. Jeremiah Johnson, as he talks about practical ways to pass on the faith to our children.

The Road to Augsburg and Beyond

7:00-8:30pm Tuesday, April 5, 2016

Learn what needed to be done to preserve the Reformation presented by Rev. Jarvis, Hosanna Lutheran Church, Buffalo MN.

Cost: $15, includes CLCC's newest book,

The Reformation and Confessions

Catechesis Begins at Home

9:00-11:30am Wednesday, April 6, 2016 (registration at 8am)

See a parent-friendly system of catechesis demonstrated by Rev. Jeremiah Johnson, Glory of Christ Lutheran Church, Plymouth MN. Cost: $15 Attend both days for $25

CLCC's conference immediately precedes the 2016 Congress on the Lutheran Confessions. Both events are at the Ramada MSP Airport/Mall, 2300 E American Blvd, Bloomington, MN; 952-854-3411. Ask for the ACL Lutherans room rate.

For more information, see our website at <http://thelccc.org>
For information on the ACL/LA Free Conference, see <http://theacl.org>

The CLCC believes that a knowledgeable laity is important

- to better understand what we profess
- to confidently witness to others
- to actively grow as a congregation
- to prayerfully preserve our confessional heritage

We're gearing up to celebrate our past as we prepare for the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Join us in MN from April 5th ~ 8th.

The ACL and Luther Academy are hosting their annual Free Conference April 6-8th. Prior to this conference the CLCC will be bringing you: Pr. Rob Jarvis as he talks about the struggles of the Reformation after the presentation of the Augsburg Confession; and Pr. Jeremiah Johnson, as he talks about practical ways to pass on the faith to our children.

The Road to Augsburg and Beyond

7:00-8:30pm Tuesday, April 5, 2016

Learn what needed to be done to preserve the Reformation presented by Rev. Jarvis, Hosanna Lutheran Church, Buffalo MN.

Cost: $15, includes CLCC's newest book,

The Reformation and Confessions

Catechesis Begins at Home

9:00-11:30am Wednesday, April 6, 2016 (registration at 8am)

See a parent-friendly system of catechesis demonstrated by Rev. Jeremiah Johnson, Glory of Christ Lutheran Church, Plymouth MN. Cost: $15 Attend both days for $25

CLCC's conference immediately precedes the 2016 Congress on the Lutheran Confessions. Both events are at the Ramada MSP Airport/Mall, 2300 E American Blvd, Bloomington, MN; 952-854-3411. Ask for the ACL Lutherans room rate.

For more information, see our website at <http://thelccc.org>
For information on the ACL/LA Free Conference, see <http://theacl.org>

The CLCC believes that a knowledgeable laity is important

- to better understand what we profess
- to confidently witness to others
- to actively grow as a congregation
- to prayerfully preserve our confessional heritage